Dear Dr. Summerson,

RE: Repository

All I can figure is that you are getting a hell of a deal on the Yucca Mountain Site. I mean anyone with shit for brains wouldn't dream of putting spent nuclear fuel and high-level radioactive waste this close to a population base like Las Vegas.

If you guys are really taking community input (I am a resident of Las Vegas and own 4 investment properties and a home here) and the fix isn't already in, I cannot say strongly enough my opposition to this project. If you do this project here, I will sell my properties and move. You probably don't care. But you should.

Angrily,

Jaymark Komer
